

Adjectives Worksheet

Practice A

Underline the adjectives, including articles, in the following sentences.

The choppy blue waters of the normally quiet lake battered Michael's worn old boat. As a veteran of many fierce storms, it looked both defiant and triumphant as high waves slapped against its chipped bow.

Practice B

Underline the adjectives, including articles, in the following sentences.

The hands of the clock were moving slowly while Gretchen walked to town. She had a serious look on her face as she approached the shop where her mother had worked for the past ten years. Today she would enter the shop for her final goodbye before she was on her way to America. As she pushed open the heavy door, she did not weep. Instead, she smiled so that she might appear happy and confident.

---

Adverbs Worksheet

Practice A

Underline the adverbs in the following passage.

Sarah and Manuel sat forlornly on the porch steps. They talked very quietly as they considered what life would now be like. With their grandmother's death, life had changed irrevocably forever, and they could not bear going inside.

Practice B

Underline the adverbs in the following passage.

The hands of the clock were moving slowly while Gretchen walked to town. She had a serious look on her face as she approached the shop where her mother had worked for the past ten years. Today she would enter the shop for her final goodbye before she was on her way to America. As she pushed open the heavy door, she did not weep. Instead, she smiled so that she might appear happy and confident.